

Based on Article 95 item 3 of the Constitution of Montenegro I hereby adopt the

DECREE

ON PROMULGATION OF THE FOREIGN NATIONALS LAW

I hereby promulgate the Foreign Nationals Law, adopted by the Parliament of Montenegro of 26th convocation at the session of first extraordinary seating in 2018, on February 14, 2018.

Number: 01-205/2

Podgorica, February 19, 2018

President of Montenegro,

Filip Vučanović, s.r.

Based on Article 82 paragraph 1 item 2 of the Constitution of Montenegro and Amendment IV paragraph 1 to the Constitution of Montenegro, the Parliament of Montenegro of the 26th convocation at the session of first extraordinary seating in 2018, on February 14, 2018, adopted the

FOREIGN NATIONALS LAW

The Law was published in the Official Gazette of Montenegro 12/2018 of 23 February 2018, entered into force on 3 March 2018, and provision of Article 50 paragraph 5, Article 67 paragraph 1 item 5, 6 and 7, Article 115, Article 120, 121 and 122, Article 150 to 203, Article 210 paragraph 1 item 12, 13 and 14 and Article 215 of this Law will apply from the day of accession of Montenegro to the European Union, provision of Article 81 of this Law will apply from 1 January 2020 and until 31 December 2019 Article 79 of this Law will apply to submission of requests for issuing temporary residence and work permit for seasonal work and delivery of such permit.

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Subject matter of the Law

Article 1

This Law shall regulate the conditions of entry into, exit from, movement throughout, stay and work of foreign nationals in Montenegro.

Compliance with regulations

Article 2

During his movement, stay and work in Montenegro, a foreign national shall be obliged to comply with the regulations that are in force in Montenegro and decisions made by the state authorities of Montenegro.

Foreign national means any citizen of another state or a stateless person.

A stateless person is a person who is not considered as a national by any state under the operation of its law.

Personal data protection right

Article 3

A foreign national shall be entitled to the protection of his personal data that is being processed, in accordance with the Law governing personal data protection.

Exemptions

Article 4

This Law shall not apply to a foreign national who enjoys the privileges and immunities under the international law, unless otherwise has been provided for by this Law.

Gender-sensitive language

Article 5

Terms used in this law in the masculine gender shall be considered as including the feminine gender.

Definition of Terms

Article 6

Particular terms used in this Law shall have the following meanings:

- 1) foreign travel document means any personal, family, collective, diplomatic and service passport, and any seaman's book, shipping book or any other travel document recognized under international treaties, according to which the identity of its holder can be confirmed and which has been issued pursuant to the regulations on issuing travel documents of another state;
- 2) country of origin is any state that has issued a foreign national a foreign travel document with which he entered Montenegro i.e. a state where a stateless person was born;
- 3) carrier is any legal entity or entrepreneur registered to conduct business activity of passenger land, sea, lake, river and air transportation;
- 4) employer is a national or a foreign legal entity, i.e. a part of a foreign company with its registered office based in, or a natural person domiciled in Montenegro, who employs a foreign national ;
- 5) foreign company is a legal entity or entrepreneur who carries out an economic or other activity and has their registered office based outside Montenegro;

- 6) an accommodation provider is a company, legal entity, entrepreneur and natural person performing tourism and hospitality business activity, i.e. providing the tourism and hospitality services pursuant to the Law regulating tourism, and any other company, entrepreneur and legal entity or natural person who provides other persons with the accommodation for a fee, i.e. who organizes accommodation for their employees or members, including the accommodation in a closed type building;
- 7) a third-country national is a foreign national without any European Union Member State citizenship;
- 8) internal security is the protection of citizens' security; safeguarding freedoms and rights and property enshrined in the Constitution; preventing committing of and detecting criminal offences and misdemeanors; finding perpetrators of criminal offences and misdemeanors; and maintaining public order and peace;

II. ENTRY AND EXIT OF FOREIGN NATIONAL

Control at border crossing points

Article 7

Whenever entering Montenegro and exiting from it, a foreign national shall be under an obligation to undergo the border control pursuant to the Law regulating border control.

Entering Montenegro shall mean crossing the state border, i.e. a border crossing point where border controls are performed.

Refusal of Entry

Article 8

A foreign national shall not be allowed to enter Montenegro, if:

1. he does not possess a valid travel or another document referred to in Article 9 of this Law;
2. he uses somebody else's, an invalid i.e. a forged travel or another document;
3. he does not hold a valid visa or a residence permit;
4. he uses somebody else's, an invalid i.e. a forged visa or a residence permit;
5. he does not hold evidence satisfying the purpose and requirements of the intended stay;
6. within a 180-day period he already stayed for 90 days in the territory of Montenegro;
7. he lacks sufficient resources both to support himself during the intended stay in Montenegro and for returning to the state from which he has come or for a travel to a third country;
8. where there is the expulsion of a foreign national from the country as a security measure or the expulsion of a foreign national from the territory of Montenegro as a protection measure or the measure referred to in Article 110 of this Law is in force, or an entry ban has been imposed on him;
9. where national i.e. internal security or public health-related reasons require that.

In the case referred to in paragraph 1 above the administrative authority in charge of police affairs (hereinafter referred to as the Police) shall adopt a decision on the refusal of entry.

A decision on refusal of entry shall be made without hearing the foreign national concerned.

The decision on refusal of entry may be subject to an appeal that is submitted via the nearest diplomatic or consular mission of Montenegro abroad (hereinafter referred to as the Diplomatic and Consular Mission), within eight days as of the day of receiving the decision.

The state administration authority in charge of internal affairs (hereinafter referred to as the Ministry) shall decide on the appeal referred to in paragraph 4 above.

The appeal referred to in paragraph 4 above shall not postpone the decision enforcement.

Exceptionally, the appeal referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall postpone the decision enforcement if the Police estimates that the life or freedom of the foreign national are jeopardized in the country of origin due to his racial, religious or national affiliation, due to the affiliation to a particular social group or due to political opinion, or where he could be subject to torture or inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment, or he could be subject to a death penalty, as well as his returning to a country where there is danger of him being forcibly returned to the country of origin.

The refusal of entry shall be affixed to the foreign national's travel document.

The Police shall keep records on the refusal of entry imposed on foreign national.

The Ministry shall set down the form and manner for affixing the refusal referred to in paragraph 8 above.

Entry, Movement and Stay

Article 9

A foreign national may enter, move throughout and stay in Montenegro if he holds a valid foreign travel document with a visa affixed to it, or a valid foreign travel document accompanied by a temporary residence permit, a temporary residence and work permit or permanent residence permit, unless otherwise provided for under this Law or an international treaty.

A foreign travel document issued in the last ten years and whose validity shall not expire at least three months after the planned date of departure from the territory of Montenegro shall be deemed valid.

Notwithstanding paragraph 2 of this Article, in a justified emergency, the validity period of the foreign travel document may be shorter, but it cannot expire before the planned date of departure from the territory of Montenegro.

A foreign national whom Montenegro is under an obligation to admit pursuant to an international treaty and where it is required for humanitarian, or internal security or public health reasons may enter Montenegro without a valid foreign travel document.

Certain countries' nationals may enter Montenegro also if they hold a valid identity card issued by the competent authority of another country, or any other document based on which their identity and nationality can be confirmed, in accordance with an international treaty or the regulation on the visa regime referred to in paragraph 2 of Article 14 of this Law.

A foreign national's stay in the transit area of an airport or within the anchorage area of a port or a quay shall not be considered an entry into Montenegro in terms of this Law.

Restriction of or ban on movement

Article 10

A foreign national's movement within a certain region of Montenegro shall be restricted or banned where national i.e. internal security or public health reasons require so, according to the law.

Entry of a foreign national holding multiple citizenships

Article 11

If a foreign national who has entered Montenegro has multiple citizenships, he is considered a citizen of the state who issued him with a foreign travel document with which he entered Montenegro.

During his stay in Montenegro, the foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be under an obligation to use the foreign travel document with which he entered Montenegro.

Entry and Exit based on collective travel document

Article 12

A foreign national whose name is entered in the foreign travel document of another person may enter into and exit from Montenegro only accompanied by the person holding the foreign travel document in which his name is entered.

Foreign nationals holding either a collective passport or another collective foreign travel document may enter into and exit from Montenegro only if they are together.

Each of foreign nationals whose name is in the travel document referred to in paragraph 2 above must hold also another document--with his personal photo in it--to serve as his own identification.

The leader of such group of foreign nationals must hold his personal passport.

Obligations of the Carrier

Article 13

A carrier may bring a foreign national to a border crossing point or to the territory of Montenegro if the foreign national meets the requirements referred to in Article 9 of this Law.

If a foreign national is not permitted to enter Montenegro, the carrier shall be under an obligation to transport back the foreign national from the border crossing point or from Montenegro at his expense, and where that is impossible, the carrier shall be under an obligation to find a different manner of transport for foreign national at his own expense or, where such different manner of transport is impossible, the carrier shall be under an obligation to bear costs that are incurred during the foreign national's stay and his transport back.

The provision of paragraph 2 above shall be also applicable to a carrier that has brought a foreign national who is transiting the territory of Montenegro if the carrier refused to transport the foreign national to the country of destination or if the foreign national is subject to an entry ban imposed by that country.

An organizer of tourist or business travels who delivers services to a foreign national shall bear the costs incurred by forced removal of that foreign national from Montenegro including the costs incurred due to the foreign national's stay in a reception centre for foreigners if the foreign national has been subjected to forced removal in accordance with this law, and does not have sufficient resources to compensate for the costs.

Any natural person or any legal entity upon whose invitation a foreign national has been either issued a visa or granted entry in Montenegro shall also have the obligation referred to in paragraph 4 above, if these costs cannot be compensated by the organizer of tourist or business travels, i.e. by the foreign national concerned.

III. VISAS

Visas and visa regime

Article 14

A visa is the permission ensuring a foreign national to enter, stay in and transit the territory of Montenegro.

Upon a proposal of the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs, the Government of Montenegro (hereinafter referred to as the Government) shall regulate the visa regime.

Visa Types

Article 15

In terms of this Law, an airport-transit visa (A Visa), a short stay visa (C Visa) and a long stay visa (D Visa) shall be considered as a visa.

Airport transit visa (A Visa)

Article 16

A foreign national shall be issued an airport-transit visa (A Visa) for single or multiple transiting through an international transit terminal of an airport during a layover or a transfer between two international flight legs, without actually entering the territory of Montenegro.

A foreign national who does not leave an airplane or international transit terminal of an airport of Montenegro during his stopover at the airport shall not be required to have a visa.

In the event referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, whereas due to national and/or internal security reasons, the Government may require certain countries' nationals to hold airport-transit visas (A visa).

Issued airport-transit visa validity shall include also the additional 15-day period.

With the exception of paragraph 4 above, the additional period shall not be approved if internal security reasons require so.

Multiple-entry airport transit visa (A visa) shall be issued with a validity period of up to six months.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall regulate an airport transit visa (A visa) issuing requirements in more details.

Short stay visa (C Visa)

Article 17

A short stay visa (C Visa) shall be issued for purpose of transiting through Montenegro or for entering as well as for staying in the territory of Montenegro, whereas such stay may not be longer than 90 days within a time period of 180 days counted as of the first day of entry.

A short stay visa (C Visa) shall be issued as single-, double- or multiple-entry visa for entering Montenegro.

Multiple-entry short stay visa (C Visa) validity shall range from six months to five years if a foreign national

1. has proved a need for traveling or has justified his intention to travel frequently i.e. regularly, while particularly for business or family reasons, and
2. has proved that he will not misuse an issued visa, in particular by using visas previously issued according to the Law, having funds he has in the country of origin and by his actual intention to leave the territory of Montenegro prior to the expiration of the visa he requested.

In an event of transiting through Montenegro, the period for which a short stay visa (C Visa) is issued should correspond to the time required by such transiting.

The short stay visa validity shall include also the additional 15-day period.

Notwithstanding paragraph 5 above, the additional period shall not be approved if internal security reasons require so.

A foreign national coming for a private or a business visit to a natural person or a legal entity in Montenegro may be required to present an affidavit of support i.e. a letter of invitation or any other evidence corroborating that the natural person or the legal entity will bear his stay in Montenegro-related costs, including also his accommodation and support costs and those for his departure from Montenegro.

An issued short stay visa (C Visa) shall not be any guarantee that a foreign national will be permitted to enter Montenegro.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall regulate in more details short stay (C Visa) issuing requirements.

Long stay visa (D Visa)

Article 18

A foreign national intending to stay in Montenegro for longer than 90 days—for performing business activities or work or serving in foreign accredited diplomatic and consular missions and representative offices of international organizations in Montenegro—but not for longer than 180 days—counted as of the first entry day—in a time period of one year, shall be issued a long stay visa (D Visa).

A long-stay visa (D Visa) shall be issued as single- or multiple-entry visa for entering Montenegro.

A foreign national holding an affidavit of support i.e. a letter of invitation issued by either a natural person or a legal entity, or other evidence corroborating that the natural person or the legal entity will bear his stay in Montenegro-related costs, including also his accommodation and support costs and those for his departure from Montenegro, may be issued a long stay visa (D Visa).

A long stay visa (visa D) may be issued to a foreign national who intends to stay in Montenegro for purpose of performing service in a foreign diplomatic or consular mission and representative office of international organizations, accredited in Montenegro, if he has evidence on performance of service in such mission or representative office.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall regulate a long stay visa (D Visa) issuing requirements in more details, upon previously obtained opinion of the Ministry.

Visa issuing competence

Article 19

A foreign national who needs a visa to enter Montenegro shall be under an obligation to obtain the visa prior to entering Montenegro.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall issue visas through a diplomatic and consular mission.

Prior to issuing a visa, the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall obtain the respective consents of the National Security Agency of Montenegro (hereinafter referred to as the Agency) and the Police, for finding out whether there are any national and/or internal security reasons preventing a visa issuing, and for a long stay visa (D Visa) issuing for work purposes, the consent of the Ministry shall be obtained as well.

The Agency, the Police and the Ministry shall be under an obligation to submit to the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs with the consent referred to in paragraph 3 above, promptly within the period of not later than seven days as of the day of receiving such consent request.

If the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs does not receive the Agency, the Police or the Ministry's consents respectively within the deadline referred to in paragraph 4 above, it shall be considered that reasons referred to in paragraph 3 above for a visa issuing do not exist.

Notwithstanding paragraph 3 above, a foreign national who is to come at a state authority, a state administration authority and a diplomatic or consular mission head's invitation may be issued a single-entry short stay visa (C Visa), without a consent from the Police and the Agency.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall be under an obligation to inform immediately both the Police and the Agency of any visa issuing according to paragraph 6 above.

A visa may be issued also by the Police at a border crossing point, according to Article 31 of this Law.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall regulate visas issuing requirements in more details.

Representation

Article 20

In the countries wherein Montenegro does not have their diplomatic and consular mission, another country's diplomatic or consular mission may represent Montenegro during the visa issuing procedure, according to both an international treaty and a law governing foreign affairs.

Visa application submission

Article 21

A visa application shall be submitted to a diplomatic and consular mission, in the required form and personally.

A foreign national whose name has been entered in the travel document of another foreign national who is a visa applicant, such foreign national shall submit a visa application in the required form referred to in paragraph 1 above.

A visa application shall be accompanied by a travel document, a photo, the evidence of the purpose and circumstances of transiting through or staying in Montenegro and a evidence of administrative fee payment.

Notwithstanding paragraph 1 above, a foreign national's visa application may be submitted by the authorized foreign legal entity referred to in Article 22 of this Law, and the visa application for a holder of a diplomatic or official passport as well as for a member of an official delegation may be submitted by the competent authority of another state with a diplomatic note.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall set down the visa application form referred to in paragraph 1 above and the evidence of the purposes and circumstances of transiting through or staying in Montenegro referred to in paragraph 3 above.

Article 21a

A foreign national may submit an application for issuing a visa in electronic format through the information system managed by the state administration authority competent for foreign affairs.

The application under paragraph 1 above shall be submitted in the prescribed form under Article 21 paragraph 1 of this Law.

Along with the application under paragraph 1 above the scanned travel document, the evidence on the purpose and conditions of transit or stay in Montenegro and a photograph in digital format shall be submitted.

In the event of submission of application in electronic form the administrative fee shall be paid through the information system referred to in paragraph 1 above.

The closer manner of submitting the application and documents under paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 above shall be regulated by the state administration authority competent for foreign affairs.

Visa application submission via authorized person

Article 22

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs may authorize a foreign legal entity to gather visa applications and the required enclosed documents in another country.

Travel medical insurance

Article 23

A foreign national applying for issuing of a single- or double-entry short stay visa (C Visa) for Montenegro shall be under an obligation to prove his possession of appropriate and valid travel medical insurance to cover costs that might be incurred due to his returning back to the country of origin from which he came, due to health reasons, emergency medical care needed i.e. emergency hospital treatment, or death during his stay in Montenegro.

A foreign national applying for a multiple-entry short stay visa (C Visa) for Montenegro shall be under an obligation both to prove his holding an appropriate travel medical insurance the validity of which is lasting for as long as the period of his first intended visit and to give a signed statement acknowledging his obligation to have travel medical insurance for the purposes of his future visits.

Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 2 above, the evidence of travel medical insurance shall not be mandatorily submitted by

1. holders of diplomatic travel documents,
2. seafarers and other persons who already have their respective professions-based travel medical insurances.

Travel document to which visa is affixed

Article 24

A visa may be issued if a foreign travel document

1. is valid for at minimum three months after the intended date for departure from Montenegro, or, in an event of multiple visits, after the last intended date for departure from Montenegro;
2. comprises at minimum two blank pages;
3. its issuing took place within a past ten-year period.

Notwithstanding item 1 in paragraph 1 above, in justifiable and urgent events, a visa may be affixed to a foreign travel document whose validity is shorter, whereas such visa validity period may not be longer than the foreign travel document's validity.

Deadline for decision on visa application

Article 25

A visa application shall be decided within ten days as of the application day.

The deadline referred to in paragraph 1 above may be extended for up to 30 days where there is a need to have an application additionally considered.

Exceptionally, where a visa issuing requires additional documents to be provided, the deadline may be extended for up to 60 days.

Visa issuing method

Article 26

A visa is granted in the form of a visa sticker affixed to the valid foreign travel document.

Notwithstanding paragraph 1 above, where a travel document does not comprise at least two blank pages or it has not been issued within a preceding ten-year period, a visa shall be entered in the mandatory visa form if so is required by humanitarian reasons or a Montenegrin national interest.

The state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall regulate the visa form and manner in which the visa is affixed to a foreign travel document as well as the visa form referred to in paragraph 2 above and the more detailed content of the visa referred to in paragraph 3 above.

If the visa application has been submitted in accordance with Article 21a of this Law, the visa shall be issued through the information system and it shall contain a barcode, a photograph and personal information of the applicant.

Reasons to refuse visa issuing

Article 27

A foreign national shall not be issued a visa if

1. he has enclosed a damaged, forged or somebody else's travel document with his visa application;
2. he has not supplied evidence justifying the purposes and circumstances of the intended stay;
3. he has not submitted a evidence of either his possession of sufficient resources for his support during the time of his intended stay in Montenegro, for his return to his country of origin or residence or for his transiting to a third country that admits him or he cannot obtain such resources in a legal manner;
4. he stayed in Montenegro for 90 days, whereas 180 days have not passed as of the day of his first entry;
5. he has been imposed the entry and stay ban in Montenegro, or he has been subjected to international measures for entry restrictions which bind Montenegro;
6. if so is required by the Montenegrin national i.e. internal security, or public health reasons;
7. he has not submitted the evidence of travel medical insurance;

8. there are grounds for suspicions about the authenticity of submitted evidence and their respective contents, trustworthiness of statements of the foreign national , or about his intention to leave Montenegro prior to the expiration of the requested visa validity period.

In the events referred to in paragraph 1 above, the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs shall issue a decision on rejecting to issue such a visa to a foreign national.

An appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 2 above may be submitted to the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs—via the diplomatic or consular mission within eight days as of the day of receiving the decision.

In an event of the visa issuing rejection, on the day the decision becomes final, i.e. legally effective, the foreign national concerned shall be given back the documents he enclosed to his visa application.

Exceptionally, also where there are the reasons referred to in paragraph 1 above and if so required by humanitarian reasons, Montenegro's interests or undertaken international commitments, a foreign national may be issued a visa.

In the case referred to in paragraph 5 of above, a foreign national may be allowed to enter only at a certain border crossing point.

Short stay visa (C Visa) extension

Article 28

A short stay visa (C Visa) validity may be

1. extended for humanitarian or Force Majeure reasons;
2. extended for serious personal reasons.

A visa extension application of a short stay visa (C Visa) shall be submitted to the Police in the place of a foreign national's stay, prior to the visa validity expiration and in the required form.

The visa validity period of the short-stay visa (C Visa) may be extended only where an applicant presents evidence of humanitarian or Force Majeure reasons, or serious personal reasons existing.

The Police shall issue a decision concerning the application referred to in paragraph 2 above within seven days.

Pending the adoption of the decision referred to in paragraph 4 above, a foreign national concerned may stay in Montenegro.

In an event of the approval of a visa validity extension for short stay visa (C Visa), the Police shall have the visa sticker affixed to the foreign travel document in accordance with Article 26 of this Law.

The visa extension of the short stay visa (C Visa) shall be refused where there are reasons referred to in Article 27 paragraph 1 of this Law.

If a foreign national withdraws the application referred to in paragraph 2 above, the Police shall abort the procedure.

In the event referred to in paragraphs 7 and 8 above, a foreign national concerned shall be given back the documents he enclosed to his application.

Visa annulment and revocation

Article 29

A visa shall be annulled where subsequent findings have shown that requirements for its issuing were not met or where there are serious grounds for a suspicion that the visa was issued based on incorrect and untrue data or false evidence.

A visa shall be revoked where findings have shown that requirements for its issuing are not met any more.

A visa shall be annulled or revoked upon a decision made by either the diplomatic or consular mission or the Police.

A foreign national shall be served his visa annulment or revocation decision.

An appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 4 above may be submitted to the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs—via the diplomatic or consular mission and within eight days as of receiving the decision.

Such appeal shall not postpone the enforcement of the decision referred to in paragraph 4 above.

A visa may be revoked also upon a personal request of the foreign national to whom it was issued via decision of a diplomatic or consular mission or the police. In that event, no appeal shall be allowed.

In an event of issuing the decision referred to in paragraph 4 and 7 above, the annulment of the visa sticker affixed to a foreign travel document shall be carried out, in the manner as prescribed by the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs.

Visa issuing at border crossing point

Article 30

At a border crossing point and upon his personal request, a foreign national may be issued a short stay visa (C Visa)

1. for a 15-day stay;
2. for purposes of transit.

The visa referred to in paragraph 1 above may be issued to a foreign national if

- he has not been in situation both to submit a visa application according to Article 21 of this Law and to present the documents proving the existence of unexpected and imperative reasons for entering Montenegro;
- he has made his return to the country of origin or residence or transit certain;
- the reasons referred to in Article 27, paragraph 1, item 1 through 6 and item 8 of this Law, do not exist; and
- his travel document meets the requirements referred to in Article 24, paragraph 1, items 1 and 3 of this Law.

When a visa application is submitted at a border crossing point, the applicant does not have to provide travel medical insurance if it cannot be obtained at the border crossing point or in case of entering Montenegro for humanitarian reasons.

Visa issuing at the border crossing point to a seafarer

Article 31

A transit short stay visa (C Visa) shall be issued at a border crossing point to a seafarer if:

- 1) he is the holder of seaman's book or another document that is recognized as the seafarer identification document according to the provisions of international treaties; and
- 2) he meets the requirements referred to Article 30, paragraph 2 indents 1, 2 and 3 of this Law, and he is crossing the border of Montenegro in order to sign on, re-sign on or sign off from a vessel on the board of which he has, will have or had his job as a seafarer.

While applying for the visa referred to in paragraph 1 above, a seafarer need not present his travel medical insurance where it is impossible to obtain it at the border crossing point or in the case where he is entering Montenegro due to humanitarian reasons.

In an event of issuing the visas referred to in paragraph 1 above and paragraph 1 of Article 30 of this Law respectively, the Police shall either affix the visa sticker to a foreign travel document or enter it in the mandatory visa form in accordance with Article 26 of this Law.

Rejecting visa application at the border crossing point

Article 32

By their decision, the Police shall reject the visa applications referred to in paragraph 1 of Articles 30 and 31 of this Law respectively if the prescribed requirements have not been met.

The decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be issued without the foreign national's statement.

An appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 above may be submitted to the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs—via the nearest diplomatic or consular mission and within eight days as of receiving the decision.

Such appeal shall not postpone the enforcement of the decision referred to in paragraph 1 above.

The Police shall immediately inform the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs about the submitted visa applications and the issued visas referred to in Articles 30 and 31 of this Law as well as about the visa application rejection decisions referred to in paragraph 1 above.

IV. FOREIGN NATIONAL'S RESIDENCE

Types of residence

Article 33

In terms of this Law, a foreign national's residence in Montenegro shall be

1. a stay of up to 90 days;
2. temporary residence;
3. permanent residence.

1. Stay for up to 90 days

Right to stay for up to 90 days

Article 34

A foreign national may stay in Montenegro for up to 90 days based on a short stay visa (C Visa) or without a visa, according to the visa regime regulation referred to in paragraph 2 of Article 14 of this Law.

In the event referred to in paragraph 1 above, a foreign national may stay in Montenegro for up to 90 days in 180-day period counted as of the day of his first entry, unless otherwise has been provided for by this Law or an international treaty.

A foreign national who stayed in Montenegro for 90 days in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 2 above may re-enter and stay in Montenegro after a 180-day period expiration counted as of the day of the first entry.

Reasons for canceling stay of up to 90 days

Article 35

A stay of up to 90 days of a foreign national may be cancelled if:

- 1) he does not meet entry and stay requirements in Montenegro as prescribed by this Law;
- 2) this is required by national, or internal security reasons;
- 3) he does not justify the purposes and circumstances of his entry and stay of up to 90 days;
- 4) he has been returned to Montenegro pursuant to an international agreement (readmission), due to an illegal stay;
- 5) there are grounds for suspicions that his stay is not for the purposes for which it was approved;
- 6) he has not settled his financial and legal obligations that became due pursuant to a final judgment rendered by the court.

Deciding upon the up to 90-day stay cancellation

Article 36

The Police shall both issue a decision concerning a stay cancellation referred to in Article 35 of this Law and enter such stay cancellation in a foreign travel document.

The decision referred to in paragraph 1 above shall set down the deadline within which the foreign national concerned must leave the territory of Montenegro, while the ban from entering Montenegro may be imposed as well.

The entry ban period referred to in paragraph 2 above may range from 30 days to one year and it shall be counted as of the day of leaving Montenegro.

The Ministry may be presented an appeal against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 above, within eight days as of the day of receiving the decision.

The appeal referred to in paragraph 4 above shall not postpone the decision enforcement.

The Ministry shall set down the manner in which a stay cancellation referred to in paragraph 1 above shall be entered.

Long-stay visa (D Visa)-based stay cancellation

Article 37

The provisions of Articles 35 and 36 of this Law shall be accordingly applied to a foreign national's stay cancellation based on issued long-stay visa (D Visa).

2. Temporary residence

2.1. Common provisions

Temporary residence purpose

Article 38

A temporary residence may be granted to a foreign national intending to stay in Montenegro for longer than 90 days for the purposes of

- 1) family reunification;
- 2) schooling;
- 3) participation in international student exchange programs or in other youth programs;
- 4) specialization, professional competence training or practical training of foreign nationals;
- 5) scientific research work;
- 6) medical treatment;
- 7) humanitarian reasons;
- 8) exercising the right to enjoy as well as to dispose of a real property owned in Montenegro;
- 9) religious service;
- 10) volunteering in the European Voluntary Service Programme;
- 11) a stateless person's stay;
- 12) work; and
- 13) other events, according to the law and an international treaty.

Temporary residence permit

Article 39

In the events referred to in Article 38, paragraph 1 items 1 through 11 and item 13 of this Law, a temporary residence permit shall be issued.

A foreign national who has been issued a temporary residence permit may stay in Montenegro according to the purposes for which the temporary residence was granted to him.

Temporary residence and work permit

Article 40

In the event referred to in Article 38, paragraph 1 item 12 of this Law, a temporary residence and work permit shall be issued.

In the case referred to in Article 38 paragraph 1 item 13 of this Law a foreign national who according to international law enjoys the privileges and immunity may be issued with a permit for temporary residence and work if this has been regulated by an international agreement.

A foreign national's work in terms of paragraph 1 above shall include employment, seasonal employment and posted worker's work.

Exceptionally, a foreign national may stay and work in Montenegro based on a work registration certificate issued according to this Law.

Permit forms

Article 41

The permits referred to in Articles 39 and 40 of this Law shall be considered as public documents by which a foreign national proves that he has been granted temporary residence i.e. temporary residence and work.

The permits referred to in paragraph 1 above shall be issued in the prescribed form, according to the European and international standards, and they shall comprise Montenegro's Coat of Arms; the name "Montenegro"; the permit's designation; protective components; and sections for entering personal and other data.

The data referred to in paragraph 2 above shall be: family name and first name; the unique personal identification number of the foreigner; gender; nationality; day, month and year of birth; the permit's number; the permit issuing date; the permit validity expiration date; personal photo; signature; issuing authority designation; the legal rationale for the permit issuing; information on the right to employment and machine readable data.

Besides the data referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, a temporary residence and work permit form shall include also the following data: occupation; the employer's designation i.e. first and family name, registered office i.e. address, and tax identification number of the employer.

The Ministry shall enter the data referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article in the permit forms.

The data comprising machine readable data shall be set down by the Ministry, according to the ICAO Dos 9303 recommendations.

The cost of developing the permit form referred to in paragraph 1 above shall be borne by the applicant.

The form of the permit for temporary residence and permit for temporary residence and work as well as the amount of the cost referred to in paragraph 7 of this Article, shall be defined by the Ministry.

Competence for form developing

Article 42

The form for temporary residence permit and temporary residence and work permit form shall be developed by the Ministry.

The Ministry may entrust developing the permit forms referred to in paragraph 1 above to a legal entity, according to the regulations governing public procurements.

In the event referred to in paragraph 2 above, a contract shall stipulate the Ministry's rights to examine and control documents relating to developing, storing and delivering permit forms.

Requirements for permits issuing

Article 43

A foreign national may be issued a temporary residence permit and a temporary residence and work permit if:

- 1) he possesses sufficient funds to support himself;
- 2) he has provided accommodation;
- 3) he holds health insurance;
- 4) he holds either a valid foreign travel document or identity card issued to him by another country's competent authority, the validity period of which must be at minimum three months longer than the period of his granted stay, or a stateless travel document;
- 5) he has not been imposed an entry and stay ban in Montenegro;
- 6) in Montenegro he has not been pronounced a final judgment sentencing him to an effective imprisonment longer than six months, for a criminal offence that is pursued ex officio, or a judgment legal effects ceased;
- 7) in his country of origin he has not been pronounced a final judgment sentencing him to an effective imprisonment longer than six months, for a criminal offence that is pursued ex officio, or a judgment legal effects ceased;
- 8) national and/or internal security or public health-related restrictions do not exist;
- 9) he has submitted evidence justifying his permit application.

Where it is about issuing the permit referred to in paragraph 1 above to a foreign national under the age of 16, it shall not be required to supply the evidence referred to in items 6 and 7 of paragraph 1 above.

2.2 Temporary residence permit

Temporary residence for family reunification

Article 44

A temporary residence permit for family reunification shall be granted to a foreign national who is an immediate family member of a Montenegrin national or who is an immediate family member of another foreign national who has been granted either a permanent residence or a temporary residence in Montenegro.

In terms of paragraph 1 above, immediate family shall be:

1. spouses,
2. their minor children born in or out of wedlock,
3. step children and adopted children until they turn 18,
4. parents or adoptive parents of minor children.

With the exception of paragraph 2 above, another relative may also be considered as an immediate family member if there are distinct, personal or humanitarian reasons for family reunification in Montenegro.

In the case of a polygamous marriage, family reunification shall be allowed only to one spouse.

The temporary residence permit referred to in paragraph 1 above shall not be issued to a family member of a foreign national who has been issued a residence and work permit for seasonal employment.

Temporary residence permit for family reunification shall be issued with a validity period not exceeding one year, or until the expiry of the validity period of the temporary residence permit of the foreign national with whom the reunification is requested.

Family reunification-based extended stay (autonomous residence)

Article 45

Temporary residence permit for family reunification may be extended where the Montenegrin citizen has deceased, as well as in an event of the dissolution of marriage that lasted continuously for at minimum three years in Montenegro.

Notwithstanding paragraph 1 above the permit for temporary residence for purpose of family reunification may be extended for a foreign national who is a victim of the criminal offence of domestic violence or violence in a family community, regardless of the period of duration of the marriage.

The permit referred to in paragraph 1 above shall be extended, i.e. issued to a child who has attained the age of majority, where he or she fulfills the requirements referred to in items from 1 to 8 of paragraph 1 of Article 43 of this Law and where he or she had a granted temporary residence in Montenegro for a continuous three-year period for purpose of family reunification.

Marriage of Convenience

Article 46

Temporary residence permit for family reunification shall not be granted to a foreign national if it has been found that the marriage was concluded as one of convenience.

In terms of paragraph 1 above, a marriage of convenience is considered to be the marriage that a foreign national entered into with the sole aim of obtaining an entry into or residence in Montenegro contrary to this Law.

Circumstances that may indicate that a marriage is one of convenience are as follows:

- 1) spouses do not observe the marital community;
- 2) spouses fail to fulfill marriage obligations;
- 3) spouses have not met before the conclusion of their marriage;
- 4) spouses do not speak a language they both understand;
- 5) spouses do not provide true personal data;
- 6) funds were given to conclude the marriage, however, not as a custom of giving dowry, where the spouses come from the countries cherishing the tradition of the dowry;
- 7) where there is evidence that the spouses used to conclude marriages of convenience before either in Montenegro or in a foreign country.

Temporary residence for schooling

Article 47

A temporary residence permit for schooling may be issued to a foreign national who meets the requirements set down in Article 43 of this Law and who supplies his schooling certificate as evidence substantiating the justification of his application.

The temporary residence referred to in paragraph 1 above—for the purposes of completing the schooling—may be extended for maximum up to two years after the running out of the deadline defined for schooling completion.

In order to have a temporary residence permit issued to a minor foreign national, a parental or guardian or legal representative consent shall be required.

Temporary residence for the participation in international pupil and student exchange programs or in other youth programs

Article 48

A foreign national coming to Montenegro for the participation in international pupil and student exchange programs or in other youth programs may be issued a temporary residence permit if he meets the requirements set down in Article 43 of this Law and if as an evidence to substantiate the justification of his application he supplies also the following:

- 1) certificate of the state administration authority responsible for the implementation of international treaties on pupil or student exchange programs, corroborating the participation of the foreign national in the international exchange program,

2) certificate of a competent authority or institution of financing the costs of schooling or study, support, accommodation and health insurance as well as the costs of return of the foreign national back to the country whose citizen he is.

In order to have the permit referred to in paragraph 1 above issued to a minor foreign national, a parental or guardian or legal representative consent shall be required.

A student who has been issued the permit referred to in paragraph 1 above may work in Montenegro, but no longer than 15 hours a week.

After the completion of studies, the foreign national referred to in paragraph 3 above who meets the requirements set down in Article 43 of this Law may be issued a temporary residence permit in Montenegro for a validity period of nine months in order to seek employment.

More detailed requirements and the manner of issuing a temporary residence permit for participation in international pupil and student exchange programs or other youth programs shall be prescribed by the Ministry, with the consent of the state administration authority competent for education affairs.

Temporary residence for specialization, professional training or practical training of foreign national

Article 49

A temporary residence permit for specialization, professional training or practical training may be issued to a foreign national who fulfils the conditions as per Article 43 of this Law and evidences the grounds for application by presenting the certificate of the competent authority, institution, or other legal entity in Montenegro that his/her specialization, professional training or practical course was approved, as well as the curriculum of the specialisation, professional training or practical training also defining the duration thereof.

The permit referred to in paragraph 1 of the Article hereof may be issued to a foreign national who has acquired a higher education qualification, for the purpose of professional training of interns, or to a foreign national who studies in another country for the purpose of practical training necessary to acquire a higher education qualification, who fulfils the conditions as per Article 43 of this Law, and who in addition to submitting the confirmation and the curriculum referred to in paragraph 1 of the Article hereof, shall also submit the evidence of education level and qualifications acquired two years prior to filing the application, i.e., the evidence of the obligation to attend practical training for the purpose of acquiring a higher education qualification.

Professional training i.e., the practical training referred to in paragraph 2 of the Article hereof shall be conducted in accordance with the curriculum containing:

- 1) description of the curriculum for professional training of interns i.e. for the practical training of students, and training i.e. education objectives and phases;
- 2) length of internship i.e. of practical training;
- 3) number of hours of professional training of interns, i.e. the hours of practical training;

4) method of conducting and supervising the professional training of interns, i.e. the practical training;

5) rights and obligations between interns i.e. the students attending the professional training and the employer.

The permit referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued to a foreign national who was granted specialisation, professional training or practical training or to a foreign national who was granted professional training of interns or practical training referred to in paragraph 2 of the Article hereof, provided that a prior approval has been obtained from the state administration authority in charge of the matters for which the permit is issued.

Temporary residence for scientific and research work

Article 50

A temporary residence permit for scientific and research work may be issued to a foreign researcher who fulfils conditions as per Article 43, paragraph 1 items 1 and 2 and items 4 to 9 of this Law, and evidences the grounds for the application by submitting the contract concluded with a scientific or research institution or institution of higher education or with another legal entity or natural person, in accordance with the Law.

The researcher referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be a foreign national who has acquired an academic title of the Doctor of Philosophy or an appropriate higher education qualification which enables him or her the access to doctoral programmes, and who has been elected by a scientific and research institution or institution of higher education or other legal entity or natural person in Montenegro to carry out scientific and research activities for which such qualification is normally required.

The contract referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall include:

1) title or purpose of scientific and research activity or the research area;

2) commencement date and completion date or the assessed duration of the scientific and research activity;

3) obligation of a foreign researcher that he shall complete a scientific and research activity within the agreed period;

4) obligation of a scientific and research institution or institution of higher education or other legal entity or natural person with whom the foreign researcher has concluded the contract that they shall create the conditions for such a foreign national to complete scientific and research activities;

5) information of conducting scientific and research activity in one or more EU member states, if such information is known at the moment of the conclusion of the contract.

Temporary residence permit for scientific and research work shall be issued with the validity period of up to one year.

The foreign researcher who has been issued the temporary residence permit for scientific and research work shall be entitled to the same tax reliefs as the Montenegrin nationals, in accordance with the Law.

The foreign researcher referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may work as a lecturer or professor, however, not longer than 15 hours a week.

After the completion of the research, the foreign researcher, who meets the conditions as per Article 43 of this Law, may be issued a temporary residence permit in Montenegro with the validity period of nine months, for the purpose of seeking employment.

A foreign researcher, who has concluded the contract with a scientific and research institution in an EU member state and under such contract his or her stay in such country is approved, may work in Montenegro for the purpose of research without temporary residence and work permit or work registration certificate, up to three months, provided that he or she possesses sufficient funds to support himself or herself and that there are no obstacles in terms of national i.e. internal security or public health.

A foreign researcher, who has concluded the contract with the scientific and research institution in a EU member state, and under such contract his stay in such country is approved, must have a temporary residence permit referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article if he wishes to work in Montenegro for longer than three months for the purpose of conducting a research.

A scientific and research institution, an institution of higher education, other legal entity or natural person who has concluded the contract with a foreign researcher who has been issued the permit referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall promptly inform the Ministry of any circumstances which may prevent the enforcement of the contract.

More detailed conditions and manner of issuing temporary residence permit for the purpose of scientific and research work shall be prescribed by the Ministry, with the approval of the state administration authority in charge of scientific affairs.

Temporary residence for medical treatment

Article 51

A temporary residence permit for medical treatment in Montenegro may be issued to a foreign national who fulfils the conditions as per Article 43 hereof and evidences the grounds for his or her application by submitting a certificate issued by healthcare institution in which he or she is to be treated, and which shall also contain the time required for treatment.

A temporary residence permit for medical treatment may be extended for the period which is necessary for the medical treatment of a foreign national.

Temporary residence for humanitarian reasons

Article 52

A temporary residence permit for humanitarian reasons may be issued to:

1) a foreign national presumed to have been the victim of a crime of trafficking in human beings or of a crime of domestic violence;

2) a foreign minor, who has been abandoned or is a victim of organised crime, or is without parental care for other reasons, or is unaccompanied, or according to the employment regulations is illegally employed;

3) a foreign national for particularly justified reasons of humanitarian nature (events of force majeure, severe illness, permanent disability and other justified cases whose circumstances indicate their humanitarian character).

The foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article does not have to fulfil the conditions as per Article 43 paragraph1 items 1, 2 and 3 of this Law.

A temporary residence permit for humanitarian reasons shall be issued based on the appropriate evidence produced by an international organisation, non-governmental organisation, or state administration authority who provides assistance and protection to the foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, or evidence produced by a competent state authority confirming that the foreign national collaborates in the investigation of criminal offences.

A temporary residence permit for humanitarian reasons shall be issued with the validity period of up to one year and may be extended as long as the reasons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article exist.

Rights of foreign national with residence granted for humanitarian reasons

Article 53

The foreign national who has been issued a temporary residence permit for humanitarian reasons shall have the right to accommodation, health care, education, work, and financial assistance, in accordance with the Law.

Reflection period

Article 54

The foreign national for whom the police determines to be the victim of the crime of trafficking in human beings shall have the right to decide, within 90 days, whether he or she will cooperate in the criminal procedure or whether he or she will either join criminal prosecution or become a witness in such a procedure (reflection period).

In cooperation with authorities, non-governmental and other organisations that are in charge or that deal with the prevention, education, reporting, and prosecution of the perpetrators and protection of the victims of trafficking in human beings and, in regard to a minor foreign national, in cooperation with the Centre for Social Work, the police shall establish if the foreign national is a victim of a crime of trafficking in human beings.

Protection of foreign nationals with residence granted for humanitarian reasons

Article 55

A foreign national who has been issued a temporary residence permit for humanitarian reasons cannot be subject to forced removal due to an illegal entry or stay in Montenegro.

The foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, for whom there is a reasonable concern that by giving a statement in a criminal procedure he or she could be exposed to the threat for his or her life, health, physical integrity or freedom, shall be provided with protection and the exercise of rights in accordance with the law governing witness protection.

A minor foreign national, for whom it has been established to have been the victim of a crime of trafficking in human beings, shall not be returned to any state if, after the evaluation of the threat and his or her security, there are circumstances which indicate that such return would not be in his or her best interest.

Temporary residence for use and disposal of the right to real estate

Article 56

A temporary residence permit for use and disposal of the right to real estate possessed by a foreign national in Montenegro may be issued to a foreign national who fulfills the conditions as per Article 43 of this Law and who evidences the grounds for the application by submitting a real estate folio in the land register or other evidence confirming the ownership of such real estate, in accordance with the law governing the real estate cadastre.

The permit referred to in paragraph 1 above may be issued to a foreign national who is a co-owner of $\frac{1}{2}$ of the immovable property.

For the purpose of paragraph 1 of the Article hereof, real estate shall be considered family houses, country cottages, villas, apartments, hospitality industry facilities, residential and office buildings, and business premises.

Article 58

A temporary residence permit for volunteer service within the European Voluntary Service may be issued to a foreign national aged between 18 and 30, who fulfils the conditions as per Article 43 of this Law and who evidences the grounds for the application by submitting the concluded contract on volunteer service signed for the purpose of participation in the volunteer programme.

The European Voluntary Service is a service founded by the European Union, where the European volunteering organisations participate, and which enables young people to carry out volunteer service within the volunteer programme in certain European countries.

Volunteer programme is the accepted activity programme implemented on the principles of solidarity, and its objectives are of the general interest for non-profit purposes, whereas the activities are not paid for, except for the reimbursement of costs, i.e., pocket money.

Establishing the status and issuing of travel document to a stateless person

Article 59

The application for establishing whether the applicant is a stateless person shall be filed to the Ministry personally, in the place of residence, on the prescribed form, whereof a certificate shall be issued.

The application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may not be filed by a foreign national who has filed an application for the international protection in Montenegro, or his or her status of a refugee has been recognised in Montenegro, or additional protection has been granted to him or her, in accordance with the Law on Asylum ("Official Gazette of the Republic of Montenegro ", number 45/06), or who has been granted asylum or subsidiary protection in accordance with the law governing international and temporary protection of foreign nationals.

In the procedure upon the application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Ministry may obtain or exchange information with the state authorities, state administration authorities, authorities of other states, and international organisations and non-governmental organisations.

The Ministry shall decide on the application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article by issuing a Decision.

Under its Decision, the Ministry shall reject the application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, if:

- in the conducted procedure, it is established that the applicant is the citizen of a particular state, or, that he or she may acquire the citizenship of another state according to the laws of such state;
- this is required due to the reasons of national or internal security.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry.

the Ministry shall issue to the person who in the conducted procedure is established to be a stateless person, at personal request, a travel document for a stateless person, with a validity period of one year.

The application for the issuing of a travel document referred to in paragraph 7 of this Article shall be submitted to the Ministry in the place of residence, on the prescribed form.

When filing the application referred to in paragraph 8 of this Article, the stateless person shall be photographed, his or her fingerprints of two fingers shall be taken and the digitalised personal signature, in accordance with the law governing the issuing of a personal identity card.

The application under paragraph 1 above shall be decided upon within six months from the day of the duly submission of the application.

The application form referred to in paragraphs 1 and 8 of this Article, more detailed manner of conducting the procedure referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, and a travel document form for a stateless person, shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Temporary residence of a stateless person

Article 60

The stateless person under Article 59 of this Law may be issued a temporary residence permit provided that he or she fulfils the conditions as per Article 43 paragraph 1 items 2 to 5 of this Law, and evidences the grounds for application by submitting the evidence that he or she has been actually residing in Montenegro for a minimum of three years prior to filing the application and that he or she intends to continue his or her stay in Montenegro.

A stateless person may stay in Montenegro based on a travel document for a stateless person or temporary residence permit.

Application for issuing of temporary residence permit

Article 61

The application for issuing of a temporary residence permit shall be personally filed by a foreign national, to the Ministry in the place of residence, on a prescribed form, whereof a certificate shall be issued.

In addition to the application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the foreign national shall submit the evidence of the fulfilment of conditions as per Article 43 paragraph 1 items 1, 2, 3, 4, 7 and 9 of this Law.

When filing the application referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the foreign national shall be photographed, his or her fingerprints of two fingers shall be taken and the personal digitalised signature, in accordance with the law governing the issuing of a personal identity card.

The fingerprints of two fingers and a signature shall not be taken from children younger than 12 years of age.

The foreign national who prior to the expiry of residence period of 90 days, duly files the application for the issuing of a temporary residence permit, may remain in Montenegro until the issuing of an enforceable decision.

The application form referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Deciding on the application

Article 62

A temporary residence permit shall be issued by the Ministry, upon previously obtained opinion from the Agency and the police on the existence of any obstacles for the reasons of national or internal security as per Article 43 paragraph 1 item 8 of this Law.

The Agency and the police shall promptly submit to the Ministry the opinion referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, and not later than ten days from the date of receipt of the request for opinion.

If the Ministry does not receive the opinions referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article within the prescribed period, it shall be considered that there are no obstacles for the issuing of a temporary residence permit.

Decision on the application for the issuing of a temporary residence permit shall be made within 40 days from the date when the application was duly filed.

Decision on the refusal of the application for the issuing of a temporary residence permit shall be made under the Decision.

Against the Decision referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article, an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry within eight days from the date of receipt of the Decision.

More detailed conditions and manner of issuing the temporary residence permit referred to in Articles 44, 45, 47, 49, 51, 52, 56, 57, 58 and 60 of this Law shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

- 7) the foreign national has acquired Montenegrin citizenship.

The foreign national whose permanent residence has terminated in accordance with paragraph 1 items 5 and 6 of this Article may be re-issued the permanent residence permit if, prior to filing the new application for issuing of permanent residence permit, he has lawfully resided in Montenegro for uninterrupted three years, under the granted temporary residence.

A foreign national whose permanent residence has terminated in accordance with paragraph 1 item 5 of this Article may be re-issued the permanent residence permit if it is established that he stayed outside Montenegro longer than one year as a victim of trafficking in human beings (illicit marriage).

The Ministry shall issue the decision on the termination of permanent residence referred to in paragraph 1 items 1 through 5 of this Article.

Prior to issuing the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, the following shall be particularly taken into account:

- 1) duration of stay in Montenegro;
- 2) personal, family, economic and other circumstances;
- 3) foreign national's age;
- 4) consequences of termination of permanent residence on the foreign national and members of his or her family;

5) connection with the country of residence or lack of connection with the country of origin.

The decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall determine the time limit within which the foreign national must leave Montenegro, and which may not exceed 30 days from the date of submission of the decision, and in the events referred to in paragraph 1 items 2 through 5 of this Article, an entry and stay ban in Montenegro may also be pronounced for the period from one to five years.

The time of entry ban referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article shall start running from the date of leaving Montenegro.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article an administrative procedure may be initiated.

Obstacles for the reasons of national security

Article 95

The existence of reasons i.e. obstacles in terms of national security referred to in Article 8 paragraph 1 item 9, Article 10, Article 16 paragraph 3, Article 27 paragraph 1 item 6, Article 35 paragraph 1 item 2, Article 43 paragraph 1 item 8, Article 50 paragraph 8, Article 59 paragraph 5, Article 88 paragraph 2, Article 94 paragraph 1 item 2, Article 107 paragraph 2 item 6, Article 111 paragraph 3 item 4, Article 121 paragraph 2 item 5, Article 130 paragraph 2, Article 136 paragraph 6, Article 137 paragraph 5, Article 143 paragraph 1 item 4, Article 149 paragraph 1 item 2, Article 150 paragraph 1 item 3, Article 161 paragraph 1 item 3 and paragraph 3 and Article 174 paragraphs 2 and 5 of this Law, shall be determined by the Agency which shall submit its opinion thereof to the Ministry or to the police, unless otherwise provided for by this Law.

The reasons or obstacles in terms of national security referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, Article 19 paragraph 3, Article 62 paragraph 1, Article 90 paragraph 1, Article 158 paragraph 2, Article 164 paragraph 3, Article 171 paragraph 3, Article 186 paragraph 3 and Article 197 paragraph 1 of this Law, shall exist if the person:

1) carries out or has carried out the activities which could lead to the commission of criminal offences against humanity and other resources protected by the international law;

2) carries out the activities which could lead to the commission of criminal offences against the constitutional system and security of Montenegro;

3) belongs or has belonged to the organizations and groups advocating violent change of the constitutional system or acting in the manner which threatens human rights and freedoms stipulated by the Constitution;

4) publically advocates and disseminates ideas which incite national, religious or racial discrimination;

5) belongs or has belonged to the organisations and organized criminal groups which prepare or commit criminal offences or supports such organisations and groups in any other way;

6) has or has had connections or maintains connections with persons who unauthorisedly collect classified and other data, terrorists, saboteurs, members of organized criminal groups, or persons for whom there is a reasonable doubt that they belong to such groups;

7) does not respect the state of Montenegro and its symbols, fails to execute decisions of courts, state administration authorities and other authorities, or circumstances point out that such person would not respect the legal system of Montenegro after being issued a temporary residence permit, temporary residence and work permit, and permanent residence permit;

8) carries out other activities which may pose a threat to national and international security.

When based on the opinion of the Agency, the Ministry or the police issues the decision that there are reasons i.e. obstacles referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, such reasons shall not be specified in the rationale of the decision.

V. REGISTRATION AND DEREGISTRATION OF RESIDENCE FOR FOREIGN NATIONAL

Filing application for registration and deregistration

Article 96

A foreign national who has been issued a long-stay visa (visa D) or who stays in Montenegro for up to 90 days in accordance with Article 34 of this law, shall file the application for registration of residence on a prescribed form, in the place where he or she intends to stay.

In the event that the foreign national who has been issued a temporary residence permit, a temporary residence and work permit, and a permanent residence permit, intends to temporarily stay in another place in Montenegro for longer than three days, he or she shall file the application for registration of residence.

The foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall file the application for registration of residence also in the event when he or she intends to stay in another place in Montenegro for longer than 24 hours.

The foreign national shall file to the police the application for registration referred to in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this Article, within 24 hours from his or her arrival to the place of residence.

The foreign national referred to in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this Article shall file to the police the application for deregistration of residence, on a prescribed form, within 24 hours prior to leaving the place of residence.

The application for deregistration of residence shall not be filed if the foreign national leaves the place of residence upon the expiry of the time of residence specified in the application.

For a child, the registration and deregistration referred to in paragraphs 1 through 5 of this Article shall be filed by a foreign national parent, adoptive parent, guardian, foster parent or the persons to whom the child is entrusted for care, raising, upbringing and education.

The registration and deregistration referred to in paragraphs 1 through 5 of this Article shall contain the following data: surname and name; sex; place, country and date of birth; citizenship; unique identification number; place of residence and address (street and number, number of entrance and apartment i.e. street and house number); date and hour of registration and time of stay; date and hour of deregistration; type, number, validity period of foreign travel document or personal identity card issued by the competent authority of another country; country issuing foreign travel document or other document; type, number, validity period and place of visa issue; date and place of entry into Montenegro; surname, name and unique identification number of the user of the facility where the foreign national stays and other data, as necessary.

The application form for registration and deregistration of residence for a foreign national referred to in paragraphs 1 and 5 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Filing the application for registration and deregistration by the accommodation provider

Article 97

In the event when a foreign national uses the services of an accommodation provider, the obligation to file the application for registration and deregistration of residence for the foreign national referred to in Article 96 of this Law shall be on the accommodation provider.

The application for registration and deregistration referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be filed to the police, on the prescribed forms, in the place where the residence of foreign national is registered, within 12 hours from the arrival, in accordance with Article 99 of this Law.

The application for registration and deregistration referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, in addition to data as per Article 96 paragraph 8 of this Law, shall also contain the following data: name and seat i.e. surname and name of the accommodation provider; name of accommodation facility; tax identification number of accommodation provider; registration number i.e. identification number of accommodation provider and address to which the foreign national is registered i.e. from which he is deregistered.

The foreign national using the accommodation services referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall provide the accommodation provider with the data referred to in Article 96 paragraph 8 of this Law.

For a legally incapacitated foreign national, the data referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall be provided to the accommodation provider by a parent, guardian or family member of such foreign national.

Exceptionally from paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, when registering or deregistering the residence of an organized group of foreign nationals which comprises of a minimum of ten foreign nationals, and when their stay does not last longer than eight days, a list of group members may be submitted which shall contain, for each member, the data referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article.

The accommodation provider shall check the truthfulness of data by inspecting a foreign travel document and shall specify true data in the application for registration and deregistration of residence.

The forms referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry, with the prior approval of the state administration authorities in charge of tourism affairs.

Records of accommodation provider

Article 98

The accommodation provider shall keep the records on foreign nationals to whom he or she provides the accommodation services.

In the records referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article the accommodation provider shall enter the data referred to in Article 97 paragraph 3 of this Law, and such data must be accurate.

The data referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be kept for two years from the date of their entry in the records, after which the accommodation provider shall delete them.

The accommodation provider shall enable the police to inspect the records referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

The content and manner of keeping the records referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Manner of filing the application for registration and deregistration

Article 99

The accommodation provider shall electronically file the application for registration and deregistration of residence for a foreign national, and if they are not technically capable to submit the application in such manner, the accommodation provider may submit the application for registration and deregistration of residence through a tourist organisation referred to in Article 100 of this Law or to the police, on a prescribed form, in writing.

The lack of technical capabilities referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be determined by the police, whereof a certificate shall be issued to the accommodation provider.

The accommodation provider shall submit the certificate referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article when registering or deregistering the residence of a foreign national, on a prescribed form, and in writing.

Exceptionally from paragraph 1 of this Article, the accommodation providers in a household or village household may submit the registration and deregistration of residence electronically or through a tourist organization referred to in Article 100 of this Law, without the obligation of the police referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article.

The manner of filing the application for registration and deregistration of residence for a foreign national shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Filing the application for registration through a tourist organisation

Article 100

A foreign national residing in Montenegro for tourist purposes, who does not use the services of an accommodation provider, may file the application for registration and deregistration of residence for a foreign national in accordance with this Law, through a tourist organization in the place of residence, and if there is no tourist organization founded in the place of residence, through a competent local government authority.

The tourist organization or the competent authority of the local government referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall electronically submit to the police the application for registration or deregistration, promptly upon its receipt.

The filing of the application for registration and deregistration through a tourist organization or the competent local government shall not be charged.

More detailed manner of filing the application for registration or deregistration referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry, with the prior approval of the state administration authority in charge of tourism affairs.

Other obligations regarding filing the application for registration and deregistration

Article 101

A company, an entrepreneur and a person visited by a foreign national with residence of up to 90 days and to whom accommodation is provided for longer than 12 hours, shall file to the police the application for registration and deregistration of residence for such foreign national, within 12 hours from the arrival i.e. departure of the foreign national.

A healthcare institution admitting a foreign national for medical treatment shall file to the police the application for registration of residence for such foreign national, within 12 hours from the hour of admission of the foreign national for treatment, unless the foreign national has registered his or her stay.

Upon the completed treatment, the healthcare institution shall file to the police the application for deregistration of residence for the foreign national, within the time limit referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article.

A healthcare or other institution shall have the obligation referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article in the event that a foreign national is accommodated in such an institution for enforcement of a security measure i.e. a protective measure.

Administration authority in charge of enforcement of prison sentence and institution and organization where juvenile prison sentence and institutional corrective measure are enforced, shall file to the police the application for registration and deregistration of residence for foreign national, within 12 hours from the admission i.e. release of the foreign national.

The application for registration and deregistration of residence for the foreign national referred to in paragraphs 1 through 5 of this Article shall be filed on the forms referred to in Article 97 paragraph 2 of this Law.

Registration validity period

Article 102

The registration of residence shall be valid until the expiry of the residence duration specified in the application.

If the registration of residence does not specify the duration of residence, and the application for deregistration has not been filed, the registration of residence shall be valid for six month, i.e. for the foreign national with the residence of up to 90 days, it shall be valid up to the expiry of such residence.

Upon the expiry of the duration of residence specified in the registration of residence, i.e. upon the expiry of six months, or the expiry of residence of up to 90 days, the residence shall be deregistered ex officio.

Events when the registration of residence is not mandatory

Article 103

The application for registration of residence shall not be filed for the foreign national who is:

- 1) accommodated in the reception centre for victims of violence;

2) a member of a unit for protection, rescue and assistance, if upon the invitation of the state authorities he or she participates in the elimination of consequences of a natural disaster.

VI. ILLEGAL ENTRY, STAY AND DEPARTURE FROM MONTENEGRO

Duty of a foreign national to leave Montenegro

Article 104

A foreign national who has illegally entered i.e. illegally stays in Montenegro must leave its territory promptly or within the period defined for him or her in accordance with this Law.

The illegal entry to Montenegro shall be considered made if the foreign national crosses the state border outside the place or time designated for crossing of the state border or avoids or attempts to avoid the border control.

In accordance with this Law, an illegal stay in Montenegro shall be considered the stay of the foreign national who fails to fulfil or no longer fulfils the conditions for entry and stay prescribed by this Law.

The foreign national shall be considered to have left Montenegro by entering the country that he or she came from or another country where he or she was granted the entry.

If the foreign national considers that he or she legally resides in Montenegro, he or she shall be obliged to provide the evidence thereof.

Obligation to inform

Article 105

The competent state authority who has initiated the misdemeanour proceedings or criminal proceedings against the foreign national for the acts prosecutable ex officio, shall promptly inform the police of the initiation and completion of the proceedings.

The competent state authority who has issued a decision under which a foreign national is found guilty of a committed misdemeanour or criminal offence prosecutable ex officio, shall promptly, upon issuing the decision, inform the police thereof.

The administrative authority in charge of enforcement of the imprisonment sentence shall, at least 48 hours before releasing the foreign national, inform the police thereof.

Measures for ensuring return

Article 106

In accordance with this Law, the measures for ensuring the return of a foreign national shall be:

- 1) voluntary departure from Montenegro;
- 2) expulsion of the foreign national ;
- 3) entry and stay ban;
- 4) forced removal;
- 5) restriction on freedom of movement;
- 6) obligation of the foreign national in the return procedure;
- 7) other measures stipulated by this Law.

Measures referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be enforced by the police.

Decision on return

Article 107

The police shall issue and deliver the decision on return to the foreign national who illegally stays in Montenegro.

The foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be issued the decision on return if:

1) he or she has been pronounced an additional security measure for the expulsion of foreign national from Montenegro or protective measure of expulsion of foreign national from the territory of Montenegro due to a criminal offence or misdemeanour with elements of violence;

2) he or she has illegally entered Montenegro and the circumstances based on which he or she would be allowed to stay in Montenegro do not exist;

3) he or she has been issued the decision on the refusal of entry in accordance with Article 8 of this Law;

4) the procedure for his or her extradition is pending under an international treaty;

5) there is a risk of evasion of obligation to leave Montenegro or if the foreign national prevents the enforcement of forced removal and return referred to in Article 125 of this Law;

6) his or her application for temporary residence permit has been rejected as evidently unfounded or such rejection is required for the reasons of national i.e. internal security of Montenegro.

The decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall determine the period within which a foreign national shall be obliged to leave Montenegro voluntarily and which may not be shorter than seven days or longer than 30 days.

The period for voluntary leaving of Montenegro defined in the decision on return may be extended by the police, upon the application of a foreign national , however not longer than 90 days, taking into account the circumstances of that particular case, notably the duration of stay, family and social ties, or whether the foreign national has children who attend school.

Regarding the extension of the time limit referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article, the foreign national shall be informed in writing.

If prior to leaving Montenegro the foreign national, for whom the decision on return was issued, has been granted residence, the decision on return shall cease to be valid upon the issuing of the decision on granting residence.

In the decision on return, the police may pronounce to the foreign national the entry and stay ban, taking into account relevant circumstances of each individual case, and such ban may not be shorter than 30 days or longer than five years.

The foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall leave Montenegro within the time limit defined in the decision on return, and when leaving Montenegro shall register with the officer working on the border crossing point.

In the procedure, the foreign national who illegally stays and who does not understand the Montenegrin language shall be provided with the translation into the language he or she understands i.e. into the language which he or she is reasonably expected to understand.

The decision on return shall be translated upon the request of the foreign national.

The decision on return may be issued even without conducting the misdemeanour proceedings against the foreign national who illegally stays in Montenegro.

Appeal against the decision on return

Article 108

Against the decision on return an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry, within five days from the date of receipt of the decision.

The Ministry shall decide on the appeal referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article within 15 days from the date of receipt of the appeal.

Voluntary departure from Montenegro

Article 109

Voluntary departure from Montenegro defined in the decision on return as per Article 107 of this Law shall mean the departure of a foreign national to the country of origin, the country from which he or she has entered Montenegro, or another country where he or she will be admitted.

The foreign national who illegally stays in Montenegro shall have the right to apply for voluntary departure from Montenegro.

In the event referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the foreign national shall have the right to ask for the assistance of an international or non-governmental organization dealing with providing aid to foreign nationals who voluntarily depart from Montenegro.

In order to encourage voluntary departure from Montenegro referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article:

- The Ministry may conclude agreements with the competent authorities of other countries and with international organizations for the implementation of international treaties, as well as with non-governmental organisations;
- the police may annul the decision on the expulsion of foreign national i.e. annul or shorten the entry and stay ban;
- the police may provide a travel document and a travel ticket for return, and necessary financial assistance.

If the foreign national who illegally stays in Montenegro has applied for voluntary departure from Montenegro after the decision on expulsion referred to in Article 4 indent 2 of this Article has been annulled, the police shall issue a decision on voluntary return.

The Ministry shall prescribe a more detailed manner and procedure for voluntary departure.

Expulsion of foreign national

Article 110

If the foreign national fails to leave Montenegro within the time limit defined in the decision on return, the police shall issue the decision on the expulsion of foreign national.

The police shall issue the decision on expulsion of foreign national in the event referred to in Article 107 paragraph 2 items 5 and 6 of this Law.

The police may issue the decision on expulsion of foreign national under a final decision of the competent state authority, if the foreign national:

- 1) violates regulations governing employment and work of foreign nationals;
- 2) aids in the illegal entry, transit or stay;
- 3) enters a marriage of convenience;
- 4) breaches the regulations governing prevention of violence at sports events, public law and order, weapons, or drug abuse;

- 5) evades tax liabilities;
- 6) commits a criminal offence prosecutable ex officio;
- 7) has been convicted of a criminal offence in the first degree in another country, which is also punishable under Montenegrin regulations;
- 8) repeats misdemeanours;
- 9) commits a misdemeanour with the elements of violence.

The entry and stay ban in Montenegro shall be pronounced under the decision on expulsion of foreign national, which may not be shorter than three months or longer than 20 years, and forced removal from Montenegro shall be determined.

The decision on expulsion may be issued even without the conducting of the misdemeanour proceedings against the foreign national who illegally stays in Montenegro.

The police shall inform the Ministry of the issuing of the decision on expulsion of foreign national in the events referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, for the purpose of annulment of the residence permit.

In the course of the procedure for issuing the decision on expulsion, the foreign national who has illegally stayed and worked shall be informed of the possibilities to receive wage allowances and payment of contributions he or she is entitled to in accordance with the labour regulations, as well as of the legal remedies for the protection of such rights.

In the procedure, the foreign national who illegally stays and who does not understand the Montenegrin language shall be provided with the translation into the language he or she understands or into the language which he or she is reasonably expected to understand.

The decision on expulsion shall be translated upon the request of the foreign national.

Against the decision on expulsion of foreign national an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry, within five days from the date of receipt of the decision.

Protection against expulsion

Article 111

The decision on expulsion of foreign national may not be issued in the events as per Article 116 paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Law.

When issuing a decision on expulsion, duration of stay shall be taken into account, as well as private or family life, economic connections and the level of social and cultural integration of foreign national in Montenegro, as well as his connections with the country of origin. When it comes to an unaccompanied foreign national minor, the circumstances referred to in Article 116 paragraph 3 of this Law shall also be taken into account.

The decision on expulsion of foreign national who has been granted a permanent residence in Montenegro, three years of temporary residence for family reunification with Montenegrin national or with a foreign national with permanent residence, may be issued only if:

1) due to an intentionally committed criminal offence, the foreign national has been convicted by a final judgement pronouncing a non-suspended term of imprisonment exceeding one year;

2) due to an intentionally committed criminal offence, the foreign national has been convicted several times in the period of five years, by a final judgement to a term of imprisonment in the total duration of minimum three years;

3) due to a criminal offence against the values protected by the international law, the foreign national has been convicted of an unconditional term of imprisonment;

4) it is required for the reasons of national security.

The police shall inform the Ministry of the issuing of the decision on expulsion of foreign national in the events referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, for the purpose of annulment of the residence permit.

Revocation and shortening of the entry and stay ban

Article 112

The entry and stay ban referred to in Article 107 paragraph 7 and Article 110 paragraph 4 of this Law shall be effective from the date when the foreign national has left Montenegro and shall cease to be valid upon the expiry of the time for which it has been imposed.

The police may issue the decision revoking or shortening the period of entry and stay ban, if the reasons have ceased to exist or if the circumstances based on which the decision on expulsion was issued have changed.

A foreign national may submit the application for revoking or shortening of the entry and stay ban referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article upon the expiration of a half of the time of the pronounced entry and stay ban, and in any case upon the expiration of 3 years of the commencement of the entry and stay ban.

Upon the application of a foreign national, the police may revoke or shorten the entry and stay ban, on humanitarian grounds, or upon the application of a foreign national if the foreign national proves that he or she has voluntarily enforced the decision on return.

An appeal may be lodged against the decision on rejecting the application referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Article, whereof the Ministry shall decide.

Free legal aid

Article 113

In the procedure before the Administrative Court of Montenegro (hereinafter: "Administrative Court") in connection with the decision on expulsion, a foreign national shall be entitled to free legal aid in accordance with the law governing free legal aid.

Forced removal

Article 114

A foreign national shall be subject to forced removal from Montenegro:

1) if the decision on his or her expulsion referred to in Article 110 paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this Law has been issued;

2) in the events referred to in Article 107 paragraph 2 items 1 through 4 of this Law.

The foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be escorted by the police officers for the purpose of leaving Montenegro.

A foreign national subject to forced removal shall not hinder the forced removal in any way.

In order to ensure that the forced removal is carried out with the observance of the fundamental human rights of the foreign national subject to forced removal, a forced removal may be technically recorded, and the foreign national shall be informed of the purpose of recording.

Carrying out of forced removal and of measures for the protection of human rights and freedoms of the foreign national who is subject to forced removal shall be monitored by the Protector of Human Rights and Freedoms of Montenegro (hereinafter: "Protector of Human Rights and Freedoms"), in accordance with the Law.

To the Protector of Human Rights and Freedoms, the police shall:

- submit the information of the time, place and manner of forced removal of foreign national and of the document under which a foreign national is forcibly removed;

- upon application of the Protector in connection with the conducting of forced removal and measures for the protection of human rights and freedoms of the foreign national who is subject to forced removal, make available all data within the competence of the police, enable direct inspection of the official records, documents and data, and submit the copies of the requested records and documents, regardless of the classification level;

- enable free access to all premises accommodating the foreign nationals who are subject to forced removal.

The police shall cooperate with the Protector of Human Rights and Freedoms in carrying out the activities referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article.

In the course of forced removal, the police may cooperate with state administration authorities, competent authorities of other states, or with international and non-governmental organisations.

For efficient supervision over forced removal, the Ministry may conclude agreements with the competent bodies of other states and international organisations for the purpose of implementation of international treaties, as well as with non-governmental organisations.

A foreign national may be forcibly removed to:

- the country of his or her origin,
- the country from which he or she came to Montenegro,
- another country where he or she will be accepted, upon his consent.

The Ministry shall prescribe more detailed manner and procedure for forced removal.

Forced removal under the decision of the member state of the European Union on expulsion of foreign national

Article 115

A foreign national with the granted temporary residence in Montenegro shall be subject to forced removal if it is established that the EU member state has issued against him or her a legally effective decision on expulsion:

1) because he or she was convicted of a criminal offence and pronounced the term of imprisonment of minimum one year;

2) because he or she is suspected to have committed or intended to commit a criminal offence in the first degree;

3) because of the violation of the provisions on entry and stay of the law of such state.

The EU member state who has issued the decision on expulsion shall be informed of the forced removal of the foreign national.

The provisions of paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply to the nationals of an EU member state, their family members, and to the family members of Montenegrin nationals.

Prohibition of forced removal

Article 116

It shall be prohibited to forcibly remove a foreign national to a state where his or her life or freedom would be jeopardised on account of his or her race, religion or nationality, membership in a particular social group or political opinion or where he or she might be exposed to torture or inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment, or where he could be subject to a death penalty, and to a state where he or she would be in danger of being subject to forced removal to the country of origin.

It shall be prohibited to forcibly remove a foreign national if that would be contrary to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, the Convention on the Rights of the Child, and the Convention on the Exercise of Children's Rights.

Taking into account the best interests of the child, an unaccompanied foreign national minor shall be subject to forced removal to a state in which he or she shall be handed over to a member of his or her family, to an appointed guardian, or to an institution for receiving children.

Temporary postponement of forced removal

Article 117

A forced removal may be temporarily postponed if the foreign national's identity has not been established, if his or her forced removal would produce serious consequences on his or her health, due to the impossibility of transportation, or for other justified reasons due to which the foreign national may not be subject to forced removal.

The decision on the temporary postponement of forced removal shall be issued by the police.

The decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article may define the following obligations:

- 1) depositing travel instruments, travel documents and travel tickets;
- 2) depositing particular financial means;
- 3) prohibition to leave particular address where his or her accommodation is;
- 4) reporting to the police at a particular time.

The decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall determine the time of postponement, which may not be longer than six months.

In the event that the forced removal is temporarily postponed, the obligation of the foreign national to leave Montenegro shall continue to be effective.

During temporary postponement of forced removal, the foreign national shall have the right to health care in accordance with the regulations governing health care.

A foreign national minor shall have the right to education for the period for which his or her forced removal has been temporarily postponed, in accordance with the regulations governing the area of education.

Annulment of temporary postponement of forced removal

Article 118

Temporary postponement of forced removal may be annulled if the reasons for temporary postponement of forced removal as per Article 117 paragraph 1 of this Law have ceased to exist, or the foreign national fails to meet the obligations as per Article 117 paragraph 3 of this Law.

The decision on annulment of the temporary postponement of forced removal shall be issued by the police.

Against the decision on the annulment of temporary postponement of forced removal, an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry, within eight days from the date of receipt of the decision.

The appeal referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall not postpone the execution of the decision.

Termination of temporary postponement of forced removal

Article 119

Temporary postponement of forced removal shall terminate:

1) upon the expiry of the time for which the foreign national was imposed temporary postponement of forced removal;

2) upon the annulment of the decision on temporary postponement of forced removal;

3) if the residence of a foreign national has become legal.

The foreign national referred to in paragraph 1 items 1 and 2 of this Article shall be subject to forced removal.

Joint flights of the EU member states

Article 120

The Ministry shall organise and take part in joint flights of the EU member states for the purpose of forced removal by air.

Assistance to the EU member state in forced removal by air

Article 121

At the request of the competent authority of an EU member state, the police shall provide assistance in the case of transit for the purpose of forced removal by air.

The request for assistance referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be rejected if:

1) a foreign national who is subject to forced removal was accused in Montenegro of having committed a criminal offence or if a warrant of his or her deprivation of liberty was issued, so that he or she might start serving his or her prison sentence;

2) it is not possible to organise transit through other states or admission in the country of destination;

3) it is necessary to change flights in Montenegro from one airport to another;

4) forced removal is not possible for practical reasons;

5) that is required for the reasons of national i.e. internal security or public health, or if that would be contrary to the international interests of Montenegro;

6) in the event referred to in Article 116 of this Law.

In the event when the provision of assistance referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article has started, it shall be discontinued if the grounds referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article are subsequently discovered.

A request for assistance referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may be rejected if:

- 1) a foreign national may be subject to forced removal by a direct flight to the country of destination;
- 2) the request was not submitted at the latest two days before transit;
- 3) the request was not submitted on a prescribed form;
- 4) the request is incomplete;
- 5) the transit will take longer than 24 hours.

In the events referred to in paragraph 4 items 1 and 2 of this Article, the request for assistance may not be rejected if particularly urgent and well-founded reasons exist.

Notification of actions upon the request for assistance

in forced removal by air

Article 122

Notification of actions upon the request referred to in Article 121 of this Law shall be submitted within two days, and in justified cases, this period may be extended by two more days.

The notification rejecting the request for assistance shall include the reasons for rejection.

Granting residence to a foreign national for whom the EU member state has issued the decision on expulsion

Article 123

If an EU member state has issued the decision on expulsion of a foreign national, in the procedure of granting visas, the state administration authority in charge of foreign affairs and the Ministry shall pay attention to the interests of such state.

Restricting the freedom of movement

Article 124

A foreign national may be deprived of liberty, brought in, and detained for up to 24 hours, only if that is necessary to ensure his or her presence in the procedure of cancellation of stay of up to 90 days and in the procedure of annulment of temporary postponement of forced removal.

A foreign national subject to forced removal may be deprived of liberty, brought in, and detained for up to 48 hours.

The police shall issue the decision on the deprivation of liberty of the foreign national referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article.

After deprivation of liberty, the foreign national shall immediately be notified of the reasons for deprivation of liberty and that he or she may request the diplomatic or consular mission of the state of his nationality to be notified of such deprivation of liberty, unless that is otherwise provided for by an international treaty.

The competent centre for social work and the diplomatic or consular mission of the state of nationality shall be promptly notified of the deprivation of liberty of an unaccompanied foreign national minor.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article a complaint may be lodged to the Administrative Court.

The procedure before the Administrative Court shall be urgent.

A foreign national shall be released as soon as the grounds for deprivation of liberty and detention cease to exist, and not later than upon the expiry of the time limit referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, except when actions are taken to enforce forced removal, or when the decision on accommodation in the reception centre referred to in Article 125 of this Law has been issued.

Accommodation of foreign nationals in the reception centre

Article 125

The police shall restrict the freedom of movement for a foreign national for whom it is not possible to be removed forcibly or whose return may not be ensured by the enforcement of milder measures, by accommodating such a foreign national in the reception centre for foreign nationals (hereinafter: "Reception centre"), and particularly if there is a risk that the obligation to leave Montenegro will be evaded or if the foreign national prevents the enforcement of forced removal and return.

The circumstances indicating the existence of a risk that the obligation referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article will be evaded, are that the foreign national:

- 1) has not left Montenegro within the deadline defined in the decision;
- 2) has entered Montenegro prior to the expiry of the entry and stay ban;
- 3) does not possess or has destroyed the document evidencing his or her identity;
- 4) has used a forged or other person's document;
- 5) has stated that he or she shall not meet the obligation to leave Montenegro;
- 6) does not have sufficient financial means;
- 7) does not have an ensured accommodation;
- 8) has been convicted for a criminal offence.

For the purpose of paragraph 1 of this Article, the foreign national shall be considered to have prevented the enforcement of the forced removal and return if:

- 1) he or she failed to observe the obligations defined in the decision on the enforcement of milder measures;
- 2) he or she has refused to provide personal data and documents necessary for forced removal or has provided false data.

Milder measures

Article 126

For the purpose of Article 125 of this Law, milder measures shall mean:

- 1) depositing of travel instruments, travel documents and travel tickets;
- 2) depositing of particular financial means;
- 3) prohibition to leave particular address where his or her accommodation is;
- 4) reporting to the police at a particular time.

The decision on the enforcement of milder measures shall be issued by the police.

The decision shall determine the obligations referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article which are appropriate for the circumstances of that particular case, and which shall be effective until the forced removal.

Against the decision on the enforcement of milder measures a complaint may be filed to the Administrative Court, within five days from the date of the decision delivery.

During the enforcement of milder measures, the police may ensure the accommodation and support, funds and other financial means for the foreign national, or regarding such measures conclude agreements with international organisations or non-governmental organisations.

In the event of a large-scale entry or illegal stay in Montenegro, the decision on ensuring the temporary accommodation of foreign nationals who are subject to milder measures shall be issued by the Government.

Decision on accommodating a foreign national in a reception centre

Article 127

The police shall issue the decision on the accommodation of a foreign national in the reception centre.

The accommodation in the reception centre may last only for the time required for forced removal and during the performance of activities aimed at forced removal, and not longer than six months.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article a complaint may be lodged to the Administrative Court, within five days from the date of submission of the decision.

The procedure before the Administrative Court shall be urgent.

Extending accommodation in the reception centre

Article 128

The accommodation in the reception centre may be shortened or extended for a maximum of 12 more months, if the foreign national refuses to cooperate or is late with the obtainment of necessary documents from another country.

The decision on shortening or extending the duration of accommodation in the reception centre referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be issued by the police.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article a complaint may be lodged to the Administrative Court, within five days from the date of decision delivery.

The procedure before the Administrative Court shall be urgent.

Right to visit in a reception centre

Article 129

The representatives of state authorities and foreign diplomatic and consular missions whose nationals have been accommodated in the reception centre, and the representatives of international and non-governmental organisations dealing with the protection of human rights of persons whose freedom of movement is restricted, shall be enabled to visit the reception centre and inspect the conditions in the reception centre and the extent to which human rights are observed.

Authority to carry out searches and take biometric data

Article 130

In the procedure of forced removal or accommodation of a foreign national in the reception centre, the police officers shall be authorised to search a foreign national and his personal possessions without a court warrant if the foreign national is suspected of possessing weapons or objects that might be used in an attack, or is suspected that he or she would discard, hide or destroy the objects that may be used as evidence in a criminal or misdemeanour proceedings and in the procedure of forced removal.

The foreign national who illegally stays and does not have an identity document or there is a doubt as to his or her identity, fingerprints and a photograph may be taken, without his or her approval, if that is in the interest of national i.e. internal security, protection of the economic interests of the country, protection of health and moral values, or protection of rights and freedoms of others.

Rights and obligations of a foreign national in the reception centre

Article 131

A foreign national cannot leave the reception centre without permission and shall observe the rules of stay of the reception centre.

A foreign national in the reception centre is entitled to health care in accordance with the regulation on health care.

A foreign national who believes that he or she has been subjected to torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment by the staff or other detainees of the reception centre, may address the Protector of Human Rights and Freedoms.

The rules of stay and house rules of the reception centre shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Stricter police supervision

Article 132

To a foreign national accommodated in the Reception centre stricter police supervision may be imposed if he or she:

- 1) leaves the reception centre without permission or if there is a reasonable doubt that he or she will attempt to leave the reception centre;
- 2) physically attacks other foreign nationals, police officers, or other employees of the reception centre;
- 3) attempts to harm himself or herself;
- 4) behaves inappropriately, grossly offends and disparages other foreign nationals, police officers or other employees of the reception centre on any grounds;
- 5) prepares or fabricates the objects for attack, self-harm or escape from the reception centre;
- 6) engages in the preparation of intoxicating drugs in the reception centre;
- 7) intentionally damages clothes and other objects and means he or she has been given in the reception centre for use;
- 8) intentionally damages technical and other equipment in the reception centre;
- 9) intentionally interferes with the operation of technical equipment (audio-visual and lighting) installed in the premises for the purpose of physical and technical protection;
- 10) constantly refuses to obey orders of the police officers and fails to observe the effective legal regulations or otherwise grossly breaches the rules of stay of the reception centre.

A stricter police supervision shall include the restriction of freedom of movement of the foreign national in the reception centre and may be imposed for not longer than seven days.

The decision on a stricter police supervision shall be issued by the police.

Upon the issuing of the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, the police shall promptly submit to the Ministry the case files on the stricter police supervision, on the same day, or if the decision was issued on a non-business day, on the first business day.

The Ministry shall decide on the removal or extension of a stricter police supervision on the first subsequent business day at latest from the date of submission referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article.

The decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be delivered to the foreign national who, against such decision, may file a complaint to the Administrative Court, within five days from the date of delivery.

The procedure before the Administrative Court shall be urgent.

The police shall lift stricter police supervision after the reasons referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article cease to exist.

If the Ministry decides to extend the stricter police supervision, upon the expiry of each seven days of such supervision, the police and the Ministry shall act in accordance with paragraphs 4 and 5 of this Article.

Release from and re-accommodation in the reception centre

Article 133

A foreign national shall be promptly released from the reception centre if:

- 1) the reasons for the accommodation in the reception centre as per Article 125 paragraph 1 of this Law no longer exist,
- 2) it is reasonably expected that it shall not be possible to forcibly remove the foreign national within the deadlines defined in this Law.

The police shall submit to the Ministry the case files on the accommodation of a foreign national in the reception centre, not later than ten days prior to the expiry of three months from the date of accommodation of the foreign national in the reception centre.

Within ten days from the date of receipt of the case files referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the Ministry shall decide under the decision on release of the foreign national from the reception centre.

In the event of release referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the foreign national who was accommodated in the reception centre for the total duration of 18 months may be accommodated in the reception centre again, if due to the changed circumstances it can be reasonably expected that he or she will be able to be forcibly removed, and the reasons as per Article 125 paragraph 1 of this Law exist.

Procedure with minors

Article 134

An unaccompanied foreign national minor and a foreign national minor younger than 14 years of age may be accommodated in the appropriate institution only if the forced removal cannot be ensured in any other way.

A foreign national minor older than 14 years of age, accompanied by a family member, may be accommodated in the reception centre only if the forced removal cannot be ensured in any other way.

The foreign national referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be accommodated in the premises suitable for the accommodation of a minor.

The members of the same family shall be accommodated in the reception centre, in the separate common room.

Stricter police supervision may be imposed on a foreign national minor, but only if he or she is accompanied by a parent or a legal guardian, whereby the attention must be paid to the best interests of the child.

The foreign national minor referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be provided with conditions appropriate for his or her age, and with the right to education in accordance with regulations governing education.

If there is a reasonable doubt as to whether the foreign national referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article is under age, the age of such person may be investigated.

Compensation of costs

Article 135

The costs of accommodation in the reception centre and the costs occurred during the forced removal shall be borne by the foreign national.

The costs referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be settled from the funds taken from the foreign national on his or her admission to the reception centre, and from the other funds in possession of the foreign national.

If the foreign national does not possess any funds to settle the costs referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the costs shall be settled by:

- 1) a natural person or legal entity who assumed the obligation to bear the costs of the foreign national's stay;
- 2) the carrier who has not transported the foreign national in accordance with Article 13 paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Law;
- 3) the organizer of tourist or business travels as per Article 13 paragraph 4 of this Law;
- 4) an employer who has employed the foreign national contrary to this Law.

The amount of the costs of accommodation in the reception centre and the costs which have occurred on the occasion of the forced removal, shall be determined by the police through a decision according to actual costs.

The costs which cannot be collected from the foreign national in the manner referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article shall be borne by the budget of Montenegro.

Procedure with the foreign national with granted residence in the EU member state

Article 136

For a foreign national who illegally stays in Montenegro and to whom the residence is granted in an EU member state, the police shall issue the decision under which he or she shall be obliged to leave Montenegro and return to the EU member state where his or her residence is granted, and the deadline within which he or she shall be obliged to leave Montenegro shall be determined.

In the event that the foreign national for whom the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article was issued fails to leave Montenegro within the deadline defined in such decision, the police shall issue the decision on return.

Prior to issuing the decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, it shall be checked if the foreign national still has a granted residence in the EU member state.

In the procedure of issuing the decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the provisions on the issuing of the decision on return as per Article 107 of this Law shall accordingly apply.

In the event that the foreign national for whom the decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article was issued fails to leave Montenegro within the deadline defined in such decision, he or she shall be subject to forced removal.

The foreign national whose residence in Montenegro has terminated for the reasons of national i.e. internal security or who has been convicted after a final judgement for a criminal offence, may also be subject to forced removal to another state if such removal is not contrary to Article 116 of this Law.

Procedure with the foreign national with granted international protection in an EU member state

Article 137

For a foreign national whose permanent residence in Montenegro has terminated and who was granted international protection in an EU member state, the decision on leaving Montenegro shall be issued.

Prior to issuing the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, it shall be verified if the foreign national still has granted international protection in an EU member state.

In the procedure of issuing the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, the provisions on the issuing of the decision on return as per Article 107 of this Law shall accordingly apply.

In the event that the foreign national for whom the decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article was issued fails to leave Montenegro within the deadline defined in such decision, he or she shall be subject to forced removal.

The foreign national whose permanent residence in Montenegro has terminated for the reasons of national or internal security or who has been convicted after a final judgement for a criminal offence and who has granted international protection in an EU member state, may also be subject to forced removal to another state if such removal is not contrary to Article 116 of this Law.

Special protection

Article 138

When applying the measures for ensuring the return of a foreign national , the best interest of a foreign national minor and other vulnerable persons referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be taken into account, as well as family life and health condition of the foreign national who is subject to such measures.

During the procedure of forced removal of a foreign national , particular attention shall be paid to foreign national minors, unaccompanied foreign national minors, persons with special needs, persons with disabilities, elderly persons, pregnant women, single parents with minor children, and the persons who were exposed to torture, rape or other severe forms of psychological, physical or sexual violence.

When applying the measures for the return of an unaccompanied foreign national minor, the competent centre for social work and a diplomatic or consular mission of the state whose national the minor is, shall be promptly informed thereof.

A more detailed manner and implementation of the procedure for special protection of foreign national minors when ensuring the application of the measures for return shall be prescribed by the Ministry, with the approval of the state administration authority in charge of the affairs of labour and social welfare, health, and education.

A third-country national, who is a family member of an EU member state national, may be granted temporary residence if he or she has entered together with the EU member state national or is joining the EU member state national who temporarily stays in Montenegro for any of the reasons referred to in Article 152 paragraph 1 item 1, 2 and 3 of this Law.

A third-country national, who is a family member of an EU member state national, shall personally file to the Ministry the application for the issuing of a temporary residence permit, in the place of residence, on a prescribed form.

In addition to the application referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, a third-country national, who is a family member of an EU member state national, shall submit:

- 1) a valid travel document;
- 2) an evidence of possessing the means to support himself or herself and his or her family members;
- 3) an evidence that he or she is a family member of the EU member state national.

Exceptionally, the evidence referred to in paragraph 3 item 2 of this Article shall not be submitted if the person referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article is a family member of the EU member state national who holds the certificate of residence registration for purpose of work or entrepreneurial activity.

When filing the application referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the national of the member state of the European Union shall be photographed, his or her fingerprints of two fingers shall be taken as well as his or her personal digitalised signature, in accordance with the law governing the issuing of a personal identity card.

Fingerprints of two fingers and digitalised personal signature shall not be taken from the children younger than 12 years of age.

The person referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, who prior to the expiry of 90-day stay duly files the application for the issuing of temporary residence permit, may stay in Montenegro until the decision upon application is issued.

The application form referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be prescribed by the Ministry.

Deciding on application
Article 164

Upon the receipt of the application for the issuing of a temporary residence permit as per Article 163 of this Law, the Ministry shall issue the certificate which shall determine the deadline within which the applicant may take over the permit.

The Ministry shall decide on the application for the issuing of a temporary residence permit as per Article 163 of this Law, within 20 days from the date when the application was duly filed.

The Ministry shall issue a temporary residence permit for a family member of an EU member state national, who is a third-country national, with the prior opinion of the existence of obstacles for the reasons of national i.e. internal security obtained from the Agency and the police.

The Agency and the police shall promptly submit to the Ministry the opinion referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, and not later than seven days from the date of receipt of the request for opinion.

If the Ministry does not receive the opinions referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article within the prescribed period, it shall be considered that there are no obstacles for the issuing of a temporary residence permit referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article.

The permit referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be issued with the validity period of five years or for a shorter period, if the foreign national who has been issued the permit intends to stay in Montenegro for a period shorter than five years.

The Ministry shall decide on the rejection of the application for the issuing of the permit referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article by issuing a decision.

Against the Decision referred to in paragraph 7 of this Article, an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry within eight days from the date of receipt of the Decision.

Extension of the right to temporary residence of a family member who is the national of the EU member state

Article 165

In the event of death of the EU member state national whose residence was registered in accordance with this Law, or in the event of his or her departure from Montenegro, his or her family member, who is an EU member state national, shall keep the right to temporary residence if he or she proves that he or she is employed in Montenegro or carries on entrepreneurial activity and has funds for support and health insurance for himself or herself or his or her family members, or if he or she is studying or attends professional training and submits evidence that he or she has funds for support and health insurance for himself or herself and his or her family members.

In the event of death of a EU member state national whose residence was registered in accordance with this Law, his or her family member, who is a third-country national, shall keep the right to temporary residence if he or she stayed in Montenegro with the EU member state national for at least one year and proves that he or she is employed in Montenegro or carries on entrepreneurial activity or has funds for support and health insurance for himself or herself and his or her family members.

In the event that an EU member state national dies or leaves Montenegro, his or her children and the other parent taking care of such children shall keep the right to temporary residence, regardless of their citizenship, if the children stay in Montenegro and are enrolled in an educational institution, until the completion of their schooling.

In the event of a divorce or marriage annulment, the spouse of an EU member state national, who is an EU member state national, shall keep the right to temporary residence if he or she is employed in Montenegro or carries out entrepreneurial activity and has funds for support and health insurance for himself or herself and his or her family members, or if he or she is studying or attends professional training and submits the evidence that he or she has funds for support and health insurance for himself or herself and his or her family members.

In the event of a divorce or marriage annulment, the spouse of the EU member state national, who is a third-country national, and who is employed in Montenegro or carries out entrepreneurial activity, and submits evidence that has funds for support and health insurance for himself or herself or his or her family members, shall keep the right to temporary residence:

- 1) if the marriage lasted at least three years, where the spouses spent a minimum of one year in Montenegro;
- 2) in the event of enforcement of a parental right over the children of the EU member state national who were entrusted to his or her custody by the agreement between spouses or under the court decision;
- 3) in the event of enforcement of a parental right over the minor children who stay in Montenegro and who are entrusted for care and custody to another parent by the agreement of the spouses or under the court decision;
- 4) due to extremely difficult circumstances such as domestic violence.

Termination of temporary residence permit validity for a third-country national who is a family member of the EU member state national

Article 166

A temporary residence permit of a family member of the EU member state national, who is a third-country national, shall cease to be valid if:

- 1) he or she is banned from entering and staying in Montenegro;
- 2) he or she is granted temporary residence based on the untrue data or concealment of the actual objective and circumstances which were decisive for granting permanent residence;
- 3) the reasons for which he or she was issued a temporary residence permit have ceased to exist;
- 4) he or she deregisters his or her stay in Montenegro;
- 5) he or she has stayed outside Montenegro during the period of temporary residence for longer than six months per year;
- 6) during the validity period of temporary residence he or she has stayed outside Montenegro for longer than one year, uninterruptedly, unless he or she was absent for justifiable reasons such as pregnancy, birth of children, critical illness, studying, professional training, posting for work to another country or military service.

Of the reasons referred to in paragraph 1 items 2 through 6 of this Article the police shall inform the Ministry.

The Ministry shall issue the decision on the termination of temporary residence validity.

When deciding on the termination of a temporary residence permit validity, duration of stay and personal, family economic and other circumstances shall be particularly taken into account.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, the appeal may be lodged to the Ministry within eight days from the date of the decision receipt.

Permanent residence of an EU member state national

Article 167

A permanent residence permit may be issued to an EU member state national who until the date of the submission of application for the issuing of the permit has legally resided in Montenegro, for five years uninterruptedly, under the certificate of residence registration.

The EU member state national shall be considered to have uninterruptedly resided in Montenegro even when in the period of five years, he or she was absent from Montenegro more than once in the total duration of up to one year, or for six months during one year, or was absent from Montenegro due to the military service.

Exceptionally from paragraph 1 of this Article, a permanent residence permit may be issued to the EU member state national if:

1) he or she has temporarily stayed in Montenegro for work or entrepreneurial activity and has stopped working due to the fact that the conditions have been met for his or her old-age pension in Montenegro, and has been previously employed in Montenegro for a minimum of one year and has uninterruptedly resided in Montenegro for longer than three years;

2) he or she is temporarily retired and has been previously employed in Montenegro for a minimum of one year and has uninterruptedly resided in Montenegro for longer than three years;

3) he or she has temporarily stayed in Montenegro for work or entrepreneurial activity and has stopped working due to permanent work incapacity, and has uninterruptedly resided in Montenegro for longer than two years;

4) he or she has temporarily stayed in Montenegro for work or entrepreneurial activity and has stopped working due to permanent work incapacity which is a consequence of a work-related injury or occupational disease based on which he or she has acquired disability pension in Montenegro, irrespective of the duration of his or her stay in Montenegro;

5) he or she has temporarily stayed in Montenegro for work or entrepreneurial activity and after three years of uninterrupted work and residence in Montenegro, became employed in another EU member state, kept the temporary residence in Montenegro, and returns to Montenegro at least once a week.

An uninterrupted stay in Montenegro as per paragraph 3 items 1, 2, 3 and 5 of this Article shall also be considered the period of residence for work or entrepreneurial activity of an EU member state national who has worked in another EU member state and has kept his or her residence in Montenegro.

The unemployment period recorded with the competent employment authority which has occurred through no fault of the EU member state national, and the period of incapacity for work due to illness or injury, shall be included in the employment period.

An EU member state national as per paragraph 3 items 1, 2, 3 and 5 of this Article, whose spouse, with whom he or she jointly stays in Montenegro, has Montenegrin citizenship or his or her Montenegrin citizenship was terminated upon the solemnization of marriage, shall be granted permanent residence regardless of the duration of stay and employment in Montenegro.

The Ministry shall issue the confirmation of the receipt of the application for the issuing of the EU Blue Card determining the deadline within which the applicant may take over the EU Blue Card.

On the application for the issuing of the EU Blue Card it shall be decided within 20 days from the date of duly filed application.

The EU Blue Card shall be issued by the Ministry, with prior opinion of the Agency and the police of the existence of any obstacles for the reasons of national i.e. internal security.

The Agency and the police shall promptly submit to the Ministry the opinion referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, not later than seven days from the date of receipt of the request for opinion.

If the Ministry does not receive the opinions referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article within the prescribed period, it shall be considered that there are no obstacles for the issuing of a temporary residence permit.

The rejection of the application for the issuing of the EU Blue Card shall be subject to the decision.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 6 of this Article an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry within eight days from the date of receipt of the decision.

Validity period of the EU Blue Card

Article 187

The EU Blue Card shall be issued with the validity period of up to two years.

If the employment contract has been concluded for the term shorter than two years, the EU Blue Card shall be issued for the term of the employment contract, increased by additional three months.

Rejection of application for the issuing of the EU Blue Card

Article 188

The application for the issuing of the EU Blue Card shall be rejected if a third-country national does not meet the conditions as per Article 184 of this Law and fails to submit the evidence as per Article 185 paragraph 2 of this Law, or if it is established that the submitted documents were illegally obtained.

The Ministry may reject the application for the issuing of the EU Blue Card if the employer from whom he or she received the offer has been punished for illegal employment or has failed to register the work of a foreign national, or the applicant has breached the provisions of this law relating to the entry, stay and work of foreign nationals.

Work pursuant to the EU Blue Card

Article 189

A third-country national who has been issued the EU Blue Card (hereinafter: "EU Blue Card holder") may work in Montenegro only on the jobs for which the EU Blue Card has been issued to him or her, and only for the employer who employs him or her.

The employer may assign an EU Blue Card holder only to such jobs for which the EU Blue Card was issued.

The employer shall keep a copy of the EU Blue Card in the business premises or at the place of work of the foreign national.

Where the employment contract terminates and where other conditions based on which the EU Blue Card was issued cease to exist, the employer or the EU Blue Card holder shall notify the Ministry thereof, not later than within eight days from the date when such circumstances have arisen.

Extension of the EU Blue Card

Article 190

An application for the extension of the EU Blue Card shall be personally submitted to the Ministry, in the place of residence, no later than 30 days before the expiration of the EU Blue Card validity period.

The procedure for extension of the EU Blue Card shall be subject to the provisions of Article 186 of this Law.

Change of employer

Article 191

The EU Blue Card holder, who changes his employer within the first two years of stay in Montenegro, shall submit to the Ministry an application for the issuing of a new EU Blue Card, within eight days from the date of termination of employment with the initial employer.

After the expiry of the period of two years, the EU Blue Card holder shall notify the Ministry of the change of employer, within eight days of the change, and shall submit the new employment contract with the new employer.

The EU Blue Card referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be valid until the expiry of its validity period.

The rights of the EU Blue Card holder

Article 192

The EU Blue Card holder in Montenegro shall have rights in accordance with Article 93 paragraph 1 items 2 through 7 of this Law.

Termination of the EU Blue Card validity

Article 193

The EU Blue Card shall cease to be valid:

- 1) upon the expiry of its validity period;
- 2) if the EU Blue Card holder has failed to notify the Ministry of the change of employer;
- 3) if the EU Blue Card holder works for an employer for which he was not issued the EU Blue Card;
- 4) if the EU Blue Card holder performs jobs for which the EU Blue Card was not issued, or performs other jobs for which he could not be issued the EU Blue Card;
- 5) if the EU Blue Card holder does not have any means to support himself or herself and he or she has applied for social welfare;
- 6) after the conditions for its issue have ceased to exist;
- 7) in the event that the employment contract as per Article 185 paragraph 2 item 1 of this Law terminates;
- 8) if during the validity of the EU Blue Card, the EU Blue Card holder was unemployed for more than three months without interruptions or became unemployed two or more times;
- 9) if the EU Blue Card holder was pronounced a protective measure of removal, a security measure of expulsion of foreign national from the state or protective measure of expulsion of foreign national from the territory of Montenegro;
- 10) when the EU Blue Card holder acquires the right to permanent residence.

Exceptionally from paragraph 1 item 2 of this Article, the EU Blue Card shall not cease to be valid if the EU Blue Card holder, for the reasons beyond his or her control, has failed to inform the Ministry of the change of employer.

The validity of the EU Blue Card shall not terminate for the EU Blue Card holder who during its validity became unemployed for no longer than three months, uninterruptedly.

In the event referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article, the EU Blue Card holder may seek other employment, whereof he or she shall inform the Ministry.

The Ministry shall issue the decision on the termination of validity of the EU Blue Card referred to in paragraph 1 items 2 through 9 of this Article.

Against the decision referred to in paragraph 5 of this Article an appeal may be lodged to the Ministry within eight days from the date of receipt of the decision.

Temporary residence of a family member of the EU Blue Card holder

Article 194

A family member of the EU Blue Card holder may be issued a temporary residence permit for family reunification as per Article 44 of this Law, in accordance with the provisions of this law relating to the issuing of such permit.

A temporary residence permit for family reunification referred to in paragraph 1 of this Law shall be issued with the validity period until the expiry of the EU Blue Card validity.

A family member of the EU Blue Card to whom temporary residence is granted for the purpose of family reunification may become employed in Montenegro, in accordance with this Law.
